

AXA Assistance renews partnership with Footman James

Footman James customers benefit from a further 2-year deal agreed with AXA Assistance for the provision of motor breakdown.

AXA Assistance has been the long-standing motor breakdown provider of UK and European motor breakdown assistance to Footman James customers. This newly signed contract sees AXA Assistance's relationship with Footman James enter its 15th year. Over 200,000 vehicles now have comprehensive cover including Homestart assistance to all private modern car policies and full European cover for all classic and modern car policies.

Paul Moloney, head of account management at AXA Assistance said, "We are delighted that Footman James have chosen to continue working with AXA Assistance. We are committed to providing a quality service that meets the customer's high expectations, particularly when we are dealing with their 'pride and joy' classic vehicle.

Paul Matthews welcomed the deal explaining, "AXA Assistance has consistently provided our customers with a reliable and extremely efficient breakdown service, both in the UK and Europe. Their ability to provide high level of customer service and benefits right across our niche and varied range of insured vehicles (classic cars and bikes, limousines, vintage cars, modern cars and bikes) enabled us to confidently extend our contract for a further 2 years."
